

SPORTS

Thursday, June 26, 2008

Golf Outing Raises More Than $90K

More Than 124 men and women attended Helen Keller Services for the Blind's 18th annual golf classic. The golf outing, which raised more than $90,000, was held at the Garden City Country Club with a program that included a cocktail hour, buffet and awards presentation for low gross, low net, long drive and closest to the pin.

Gundermann & Gundermann's Pat Grant with HKSBC Comptroller Julian Weiss during the cocktail reception.

Fred McPhilliamy and Brooks Brothers' Claudio Del Vecchio enjoy a moment of relaxation after a round of golf.

HKSBC's volunteers from Luxottica Group help in the selling of the raffles. From left to right: Annette Trewick, Claire Marsico, Annemarie Soto and Rosa Tressa.

Umberto Corte (of Umberto's restaurant, third from left) is joined by Joe Freitas, Bill Kort and a friend.

Hudson Meridian has on hand Terry Jacobs, Sean Kelly, Bill Cote and Richard Santosky.

Garden City's own Thomas Jacobberger (second from left) with guests Rick Volpe, Rob Salvatico and Peter Gold.

The golfers enjoy some seafood after a hard day of golfing.

GCAA Boys Fall Soccer Registration

GCAA is currently accepting applications for the boy's fall intramural soccer program. Players entering Grades K-6 in the fall and who attend school or live in Garden City are eligible to participate. The season will run on Saturday afternoons from Sept. 6 to early November.

Applications were mailed to most homes, but can also be found at gc-aa.com, St. Paul's and the Garden City Recreation Department. The application deadline is July 15. Additional information on the GCAA soccer program can be found at the GCAA website: gc-aa.com.